

Student Organizations & Leadership Opportunities

Celebrating John Muir Week & Muirstock Committee — Come plan events to honor John Muir! The week's events include beautification projects, a birthday celebration, and an all-day music festival called Muirstock. Committee members secure funding, select bands, set up day-time activities, and run the show. Past performances have included: Hellogoodbye, Imagine Dragons, Finch, Sherwood, Clara C., and Lady Danville.

College Leadership Planning Committees — Members make key decisions about Muir's leadership conferences, retreats and activities including: themes, schedule, workshop topics, presenters, meals, and much more!

FOOSH — Full of laughs! Members will learn improv techniques to perform comedy shows for the Muir and UCSD communities. If you like to have fun and laugh, this is a great organization for you. No experience necessary.

Gourmet Muir — Gourmet Muir's goal is to promote healthy eating by encouraging student involvement in cooking. Gourmet Muir caters to both novice and experienced cooks by offering a variety of events, from presentations on kitchen basics to professional chef demonstrations.

Healing Your Heart — Healing Your Heart is a women's circle that focuses on positive affirmations and self-improvement. While our group is spiritual, we have no religious affiliations. Everyone is welcome! We help individuals reclaim their power so they can be the best they can be.

Muir Art Club (MAC) — This club is for people who have a passion for art and artistic expression. Join MAC to explore different artistic mediums while making friends at the same time.

Muir Bible Study — This community of students focuses on developing their relationship with God and serving the spiritual needs of Muir's Christian students. Through weekly Bible study, outreach events, community service projects, and simply hanging out, the members grow closer to each other and to God.

Muir College Commuter Council (M3C) — M3C is best known for hosting a FREE breakfast and Finals Week Burnout Center for all of Muir commuter students to enjoy. M3C also represents the Muir commuter population on important university issues relating to commuters such as parking, commuting, shuttle services, and much more.

Muir College Council (MCC) — With a budget generated by the student activity fee, this student governing body decides how best to allocate these funds. MCC members represent the interests of Muir students when crucial decisions are being made about the College or University. MCC has a wide variety of positions available throughout the year. Find openings and position descriptions at mcc.ucsd.edu.

Muir Community Garden Club — Tucked away behind the College Center, you'll find Muir's very own garden called Muir Half Moon Meadow! We plant fresh fruits and vegetables, and host programs to celebrate the harvest. If you have a green thumb or want to learn more about gardening then this is the place for you!

Muir Croquet Team (MCT) — Every week the Muir Croquet team hosts a friendly croquet match in the Muir quad. Both novice and experienced players are welcome to join in on the fun.

Muir Environmental Corps (MEC) — MEC participates in environmental activities at the college and in the surrounding community. Activities include clean-up projects, camping trips, and other environmentally conscious projects. MEC also publishes their own quarterly newsletter, The Tramp (John Muir's nickname).

Muir Eventual Doctors (MED) — Are you considering a future in the medical or health field but are not sure if it's right for you? This club is designed around medical discussions, presentations from prestigious speakers, networking with other students, and having fun.

Muir Movie — A blockbuster hit with Muir students! The Muir Movie is a full-length feature movie written, produced, and acted by UCSD students. All students are welcome to join.

Muir Musical Ensemble — This organization plans a large, student-run, musical production that combines the talents of performers, production staff, and orchestra members into one of the biggest events on campus. Past productions include: Spring Awakening, In the Heights, and Legally Blonde. Open to all UCSD students in all majors and all colleges.

Muir Organizing Board (MOB) — MOB plans several annual events such as the Suitcase Dance and Casino Night. Additionally, MOB subsidizes off-campus excursions to Knott's Scary Farm, Big Bear Mountain, and much more.

Muir Outspoken — "If you or someone that you know would like
To find a place and time to sit and write
Or maybe share some pieces you have writ
Or find some folks to help inspire wit
Perhaps you seek a place outside the norm
And find a place to laugh within the storm
A place to foster creativity
Then Muir Outspoken this place may just be!"

Muir Peer Program (MPP) — Interested in being a mentor to a freshman or new transfer student? Or would you like your own mentor? The Muir Peer Program (MPP) is a mentorship program designed to assist students with the social, personal, and academic adjustments associated with college.

Muir Quarterly (MQ) — Muir's student-produced humor newspaper provides the student body with a satirical take on current events. Made up of a large staff of photographers, writers and layout editors, the MQ offers something for anyone who wants to gain experience in print media.

Muir Residents' Council (MRC) — Comprised of representatives from each house and the apartments, Res Council is best known for their annual Halloween Carnival, Pumpkin Drop, Spirit Night, and Finals Week Burnout Center.

Muir Semi-Formal Committee — One of Muir's most anticipated and biggest events of the year. Come help decide the location, theme, menu, decorations, DJ, and more!

Muir Volunteer Program (MVP) — From tutoring to food drives, MVP is one of the most active organizations with weekly service opportunities. Some non-profit organizations with which MVP has worked include the San Diego Center for Children, John Muir K-12 School, YMCA, KPBS, and San Diego's Adopt-a-Family.

SOAR (School of Arts Revolution) Performing Arts — Were you active in high school theater? SOAR offers an opportunity for actors, writers, and directors to perform original material.

STITCH (Students Taking Initiative to Crochet Hats) — Join STITCH to learn how to crochet scarves, stuffed animals and more! All creations are sold at the end of the year and benefit a charity.

Tribe of Muir Transfers (TMT) — TMT has a family-like atmosphere and focuses on the concerns and needs of transfer students at Muir College. TMT plans social events and activities throughout the year.

Triton Day Committee — This committee organizes an all-day extravaganza for newly admitted students. The committee plans the entire day's schedule which typically includes tours, outdoor activities, entertainment, and information sessions. The Triton Day Committee begins meeting winter quarter.

Weekends at Muir (WAM) — WAM is dedicated to providing weekend activities, meet-ups and excursions at Muir and around San Diego. They also host the monthly Muir Unplugged open mic on the first Friday of each month.

Welcome Week Committee — Welcome Week may be the most memorable experience of your college career and Muir's Welcome Week committee is responsible for planning every aspect of it. From selecting an Unolympics theme to choosing the nightly entertainment, the Welcome Week Committee makes it all happen! Meetings start during spring quarter.

YoYo Muir — This org is perfect for anyone who has an affinity for yoyo tricks, kendama or rubik's cube. No experience is necessary. Our seasoned YoYo Muir leaders offer free lessons every week throughout the year. YoYos are provided so come join YoYo Muir and show off your tricks or learn something new!
