

Critical Gender Studies 87

We Are What We Wear – or Are We?
Cross-Dressing in Historical Perspective (1-unit Freshman Seminar)

Cynthia Truant, Department of History

Section ID# 616405

Wednesday 1:00 – 2:30pm

Meeting Dates:

4/9, 4/16, 4/23, 4/30, 5/7, 5/14, 5/21

Location: Women’s Center Conference Room

Racing across time and cultures, we'll study females and males who cross-dressed for a day or everyday. The course uses documents, images, film, etc., to understand the complexities of and attitudes toward this practice from ancient to present times.

Detecting the Invisible: Does the workplace treat women or parents unfairly? (1-unit Senior Seminar)

Mary Blair-Loy, Department of Sociology

Section ID# 616409

Thursday 9:00 – 10:50am

Meeting Dates: 4/10, 4/17, 4/24, 5/1

Room: SSB 414

What does social scientific research say about how fairly women and men are treated in the workplace today? Parents compared to non-parents of the same gender? This research illuminates what is often invisible as we embark on our own careers.

SOCL 87 Gender, Sexuality & Opportunity is also a freshman seminar offered through the Sociology department with Professor Mary Blair-Loy.

M 10-11:50am SSB 414
