Welcome to your House!

A “House” consists of two floors in a Res Hall joined by open House Lounge and spiral staircase that connects the two floors.
Each House has at least one House Advisor, more commonly known as an HA.

HAs are housed in detached rooms located in the middle of each floor, north of the elevators. They each have a whiteboard on their door and bulletin board nearby where they leave helpful information for their residents.
In Muir, a House consists of two floors connected by an open house lounge with a balcony and connecting spiral staircase.

The House Lounge is on the first floor of the house and offers space for studying, weekly House Meetings, and other gatherings.
Each house lounge has couches and chairs for lounging as well as multiple tables and chairs for studying.

A white board is available in the house lounge for study groups.

House Lounges also have outdoor balconies.
Every house has a laundry room with multiple washers and dryers, as well as additional single occupant study spaces.
Each end (or wing) of the Res Halls opens into a shared suite lounge and kitchen. Each kitchen has a microwave, sink and storage space. The side lounge has a couch and chairs for lounging as well as a side booth for studying.
