

Around Muir College

Click through to see what makes Muir College unique!

Muir Quad

Stewart Commons Area

- ▶ Outside of Stewart Commons, students can study at tables, lounge on outdoor furniture, or play billiards
- ▶ When the World Comes to Life is a 3-D art piece by Kumeyaay artist, Johnny Bear. The piece serves to acknowledge the Kumeyaay land that UCSD is build upon, as well as to represent family, community, and the gender spectrum.

M.O.M./Muir Woods Coffee Shop

Muir College boasts having its very own coffee shop – Muir Woods. Students can get specialty drinks, snacks, college merch and study with friends. Triton Cash and credit cards accepted. M.O.M. is an acronym for Middle Of Muir, where it is located.

Muir Amazon Lockers

Muir Mailboxes

Students pick up their mail at mailboxes located at Muir and can order packages directly to the Muir's Amazon locker

Muir's Open Courtyard & Academic Buildings

McGill, H&SS, AP&M, and the Bio building are all located at Muir

Pines Dining Hall

- ▶ Each college at UC San Diego has their own dining hall. Muir's dining hall is Pines, located on the top floor of the Stewart Commons building.
- ▶ Across from Pines is an open courtyard with outdoor seating

John's Market in Tamarack

- ▶ John's Market is run through UCSD's HDH which means students can use their dining dollars to pay for any of the fair: coffee, a small selection of snacks and grocery items, as well as a rotating daily selection of ice cream! Triton Cash and credit cards are also accepted.

Muir Residential Life Office

The Muir Residential Life office is located on the bottom floor of the Tuolumne Apartments, across from Muir Woods.

Front door

Nearby Recreational Spaces

The cliffs are a short walk from
Muir
College